Dear Friends:

The WFMH staff has reviewed all of the 2004 WMHDAY Reports that have been submitted and we are happy to say that we have chosen your WMHDAY promotion activity to receive the Richard C Hunter Mental Health Day Award for this year.

Your project was very thorough and well publicized and we feel the educational material you produce reached and educated a large population in Spain. Your work for mental health is commendable and your extra efforts for WMHDAY are well recognized here at the WFMH Secretariat.

The Richard C Hunter Mental Health Day Award is given to a project that shows exemplary effort in education and promotion of mental health in a particular country or abroad in conjunction with World Mental Health Day. We are awarding FEAFES this honor for WMHDAY 2004 and will have a special session at our Biennial World Congress in Cairo Egypt to discuss World Mental Health Day and present the award.

We know this is late notice, but if anyone from your organization is already attending the WFMH Biennial World Congress, we would like to know so we can present the award to a FEAFES Representative during this special session.

The WFMH thanks you for your efforts in global mental health and for World Mental Health Day!

Sincerely,

Deborah Maguire
Director of Programs
